

FOR FAMILIES WITH MONEY IN THE ACCOUNT

48 FAITH-BASED CURRICULUMS TAKE TEFA. THE LIST, SORTED.

On the state's finder, 48 curriculum vendors tag themselves "religious affiliation." The tag doesn't say which tradition, which grades, or whether it's a full program. Here is all 48, and how to tell them apart in one visit to each site.

THREE KINDS OF VENDOR HIDE UNDER ONE TAG

Full programs

Multi-subject, multi-grade, with a scope-and-sequence. On this list, look for the ones that also carry the "complete curriculum" tag: Blue Manor Academy, Catholic Academy, Complete Book & Media Supply, Kingdom Roots Academy, LFA Community.

Publishers and single-subject lines

Science from one house, history from another, a Bible or theology course on its own. Many families build a year this way. Budget by subject.

Co-ops, hybrids, and local academies

Marked "local" below. Some meet in person a few days a week. Ask what the fee covers and whether it's tuition (approved) or a membership (ask).

FOUR QUESTIONS FOR EACH SITE

- Which tradition, stated plainly? (The state's tag doesn't say.)
- Full program or one subject?
- Who teaches: parent, video, or live teacher?
- Is this specific product TEFA-approved? Ask in writing before you pay.

What we can't tell you

The state publishes no prices and no reviews, and neither do we. We list what the finder lists. If a vendor below looks wrong for the tag, check the site, then check the finder again, because vendors are added and removed.

Texas Homeschool Voucher News is an independent, free weekly publication from Texas Sports Academy, a private school.
